Title: They call me Coach: What does that mean?

This talk is based on the belief that being called Coach is one of the highest honors a coach can be given. To fill this role correctly a person who coaches should have a servant mentality.

Knowledge of the sport/events should be a given, but it is equally important to keep in mind that the process is more important than the results and that “it” should always be about the athletes, and not about the coach.

1. Nothing greater than to be called Coach
2. Servant leadership
3. Knowledge of the events
4. KISS or KILL method
5. Use Games to win kids; not kids to win games
6. Motivation
7. Leadership
8. Purpose of an assistant coach
9. Don't take it personally.
