

Tim Walters Bio

Integrity Sport Group

Tim Walters has been coaching Track and Field for 48 years at every level.

His knowledge of the sport and ability to communicate has made him a favorite year after year at the OATCCA Clinic as well as a sought after personal coach and trainer.

Tim has dedicated himself to training his athletes to perform at the highest levels of their sport. During a recent Five (5) year stint at the Ohio State University, Walters guided his athletes to 6 Big Ten Titles as well as 4 All American performances.

While coaching the Buckeyes he trained Heath Nickles to break the All Time Heptathlon and Decathlon Record at OSU.

In 2015 he guided the career of Caleb Wilt, the Division II 110 meter State Hurdle Champion, now with the Kentucky Track and Field Program. Walters still works with Wilt and will guide his career after UK toward the US Olympic Trials.

Walters lives on a farm outside of Washington Court House where he has built a very popular 5K Cross Country Course and training facility for his organization "Integrity Sport Group". His wife, Alana, daughter Beth and son-in-law Ryan all work for the Washington Court House City Schools. His 3 granddaughters are looking for an anchor for their relay team.
